

Indigenous Scholarship Fact Sheet

CGGS is a Christian school in the Anglican tradition valuing diversity and inclusiveness.

CGGS is delighted to offer indigenous scholarships to aspiring young women motivated to respond to challenges with curiosity and courage. CGGS students experience, understand, value and develop the skills needed for their future. When our students graduate, they leave as global citizens who are lifelong passionate learners, compassionate leaders and catalysts for building a more just and sustainable world.

We are committed to learning about indigenous people and culture as we recognise them as the traditional custodians of the land. We demonstrate respect through our relationships with indigenous people including elders and students and families, by Acknowledging Country at key events, celebrating culture during significant weeks such as Reconciliation Week, creating displays in the school and fly the Aboriginal flag with the Australian Flag at the front of our school.

We are proud to work closely with Murrundindi, ngurungaeta of the Wurundjeri people, participate in sporting and cultural events a Worawa Aboriginal College in Healesville and partner with the Melbourne Indigenous Transition School in Richmond to enable indigenous students to attend CGGS.

Learning about indigenous culture is a major focus of our Year 8 Service Learning program and in recent years we have participated in the Mungo Youth Project and a Living Culture Immersion Program with Indigenous elders at Mungo and the Rick Farley Reserve.
